Directors' Showcase completes 2000-01 season

June is here and it's time for our annual business meeting and concert featuring the OCGC's board of directors on Saturday, June 16, at 8:00 p.m. at Salmon Hall. One thing that can be expected at our Directors' Showcase is a wide variety of music from various cultures and backgrounds.

Dave Weisbart will perform the Aria from Villa-Lobo's Bachianas Brasileiras with soprano Eileen O'Hern. Guitarist and luthier Joe Poshek will perform Brazilian music by Jobim along with Icarus by Ralf Towner. Treasurer Dave Cahueque will be playing works by Debussy and Albéniz.

Greg Goodhart will perform classic pieces by Bach, Barrios, and Murdurra as well as new music by Breznikar. Rosette editor Larry Buckel (yours truly) will play two Hawaiian slack-key guitar pieces to ring in the summer.

Our Vice President Richard Glenn will be performing a series of early music pieces on the 10 course Renaissance Lute. He will then take up the classical guitar for a series of traditional Portuguese with Ron Fernandez who will perform with Richard on the Portuguese guitar.

As with all of our scheduled recitals, the program will be held at Salmon Hall at Chapman University. Admission is free for all OCGC members. Non-members are asked to pay $7.00 at the door.

In accordance with the OCGC by-laws, a short meeting will be held before the concert starts to make announcements and discuss club business.

The meeting will begin at 8:00 p.m. with the concert immediately following. We hope to see all of you at our June 16th meeting and recital.

Your OCGC Directors work hard volunteering many hours of service each year to provide quality programs for you in a congenial environment. We appreciate your support and will continue working hard to ensure our organization continues to thrive.

We hope you will attend our last season recital before the summer break.
