June 15 Directors' Showcase caps off 2001- 02 season

June is here and it's time for our annual business meeting and concert featuring the OCGC's board of directors on Saturday, June 15, at 8:00 p.m. at Salmon Hall. One thing that can be expected at our Directors' Showcase is a wide variety of music from various cultures and backgrounds.

Treasurer Dave Cahueque will be playing works by Joaquín Rodrigo. Our Vice President Richard Glenn and Recording Secretary Janice Raasch will partner up this year as they present the music of Enrique Granados.

Jeff Cogan is the program director for our featured artist series. He will be performing the music of Carcassi and Sor with guest clarinetist Mr. Gerry Long.

Vice President Richard Glenn, Larry Deak and Rosette editor Larry Buckel will perform with Joe Poshek featuring Joe's arrangements of Baroque music by Vivaldi, and Teleman for guitar quartet.

Our OCGC President Lee Zimmer will be performing with guitarist Eric Brenton. Known as the Duo Sesoko, they will be performing the works of Manuel de Falla, Tchaikovsky and Astor Piazzolla. Greg Goodhart will perform music by Frederico Morena Torroba.

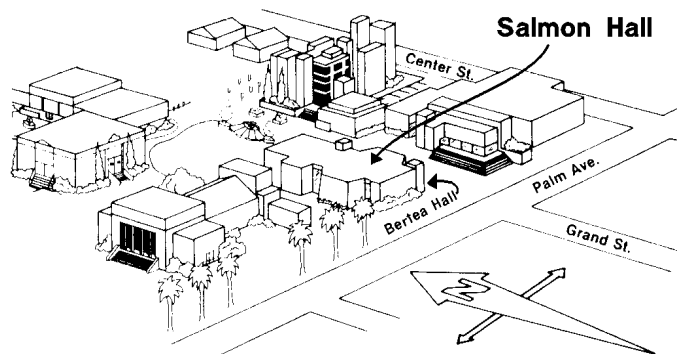

As with all of our scheduled recitals, the program will be held at Salmon Hall at Chapman University. Admission is free for all OCGC members. Non-members are asked to pay $7.00 at the door.

In accordance with the OCGC by-laws, a short meeting will be held before the concert starts to discuss club business and to make announcements.

The meeting will begin at 8:00 p.m. with the concert immediately following. We hope to see all of you at our June 15th meeting and recital.

Your OCGC Directors work hard volunteering many hours of service each year to provide quality programs for you in a congenial environment. We appreciate your support and will continue working hard to ensure our organization continues to thrive.

We hope to see you at our last season recital before the summer break.
