Eduardo Pascual Opens the OCGC 2005-06 Season

Virtuoso Guitarist and Scholar Eduardo Pascual will perform Saturday September 17th at Chapman University.

As an artist, Eduardo Pascual, is a prize winner as well as an active performer throughout the world.. Amidst these travels, in 2004, he produced a DVD with the Arco String Quartet, from Belgrade.

He teaches at the Conservator in Valladolid, a post he has held since 1992. Additionally, since 1996, he serves as the Director of the Conservator of "Antonio Bacierno" in Aranda de Duero.

Eduardo Pascual is the director of the International Guitar Festival and Competition "Villa de Aranda de Duero" since 1997, and the "Esteban Daza", Valladolid, both in Spain. He is the president of the Cultural Musical Association "Hispano Europea"

His multi-faceted career has enabled his spirited interpretations of music from a variety of periods. His program will include works by Scarlatti, J.S. Bach, M.Guiliani, J. Dowland, and Reginald Smith Brindle.

The recital will be held on September 17th at 8:00 PM in Salmon Hall at Chapman University, 333 N. Glassell St. Orange, CA.
